

I was deeply saddened when I learned of Corporal Nolan Caribou's passing and have been monitoring the investigation. My heart goes out to Corporal Caribou's family and friends. Every member of our Canadian Armed Forces deserves a professional environment in which they are treated with respect and dignity. We all have a responsibility to uphold this environment and those who do not do so will be held to account. I want to be clear: any kind of harmful behaviour and harassment is completely unacceptable and will not be tolerated within our Canadian Armed Forces. The investigation into this terrible tragedy is ongoing, and I am still awaiting the final results. I want to assure Canadians that I am seized of this matter and am committed to ensuring that our leadership takes appropriate action to prevent future tragedies from occurring.
